

INCOME TAX RESOLUTION IN

Question of Constitutional Amendment

REFERRED TO FINANCE COM.

First Step in Taft's Plan—Bailey and Cummins for It, But Also to Con- tinue Fight for Their Amend- ment.

Washington, June 18.—The first step toward compliance with the recommendations contained in President Taft's special message of yesterday was taken in the Senate yesterday. Senator Brown introduced a joint resolution to submit to the states an amendment to the federal constitution conferring power definitely on the government to "lay and collect direct taxes upon income without apportionment among the several states, according to population." It was referred to the finance committee.

Senator Dewey expressed the opinion yesterday afternoon that both the income tax resolution and the tariff bill amendment for a 2 per cent. tax on the net earnings of corporations, as urged by the president, would be passed. He expects to vote for both of them, and said he felt confident that if an income tax amendment is submitted to the states it will be ratified. He doubted, however, if New York would endorse it.

The situation produced in the Senate by the White House message continued to absorb the attention of senators in the corridors and cloak rooms. While tomorrow has been fixed for consideration of the Bailey-Cummins income tax amendment to the tariff bill, it will not be taken up at that time. This decision has been reached by the Senate leaders, who were busy trying to get unanimous consent to defer consideration of this question until the schedules are disposed of. Failing in this, a motion to postpone will be voted on, and doubtless carried, when the question is reached tomorrow.

It is clear that there is to be a bitter fight over the whole category of questions raised by the message of the president. Many senators look for prolonged debate, and the supporters of the Bailey-Cummins amendment will be so fashioned to make their fight. They will not oppose the resolution for submission of an income tax amendment to the constitution to the states; they will work not only to levy an income tax, but for the constitutional amendment as well.

President Taft has been warned that he will be on his guard or the net earnings tax will be so fashioned to make their fight. They will not oppose the resolution for submission of an income tax amendment to the constitution to the states; they will work not only to levy an income tax, but for the constitutional amendment as well.

Talk of a Republican caucus on both the income tax question and the corporation tax question is heard. Most of the "insurgents" would be willing to settle the matter in this fashion, and to go in to the caucus.

PAPER AND PULP.

Debate in the Senate Yesterday Involves Those Questions.

Washington, June 18.—After disposing with little difficulty of a number of disputed paragraphs in the tariff bill, the Senate began this morning the consideration of the paper and pulp provisions which have been the bone of contention and of no little anxiety on the part of senators.

The question of the prices paid for labor in the United States and Canada was disputed. Senator Brown of Nebraska and Senator Frye of Maine debating the matter.

Sensors Frye, Gallinger and Hale insisted that wages were lower in Canada than in the United States, while Mr. Brown put forth the report of the Mann committee and the statement of the American consul at Quebec to show that rates of wages were higher in Canada.

Hill Sees President.

Washington, June 18.—James J. Hill, chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern railroad, was a visitor at the White House yesterday. Mr. Hill said he came to pay a friendly call, and had nothing to say about Mr. Taft's plans for levying a tax on the undivided income of corporations.

Closing Calhoun Trial.

San Francisco, June 18.—Attorney A. A. Moore concluded his speech for the defense in the Patrick Calhoun bribery case yesterday, and Assistant District Attorney Hough began his closing argument for the prosecution.

INSTANT RELIEF FROM DREAD CATARRH

Why don't you get rid of that nasty, humiliating disease catarrh? You can do it if you really want to. But you can't cure catarrh in a few days. That's an utter impossibility, because there is no remedy known that will kill the catarrh germs in that short time.

But you can cure catarrh if you will have a little patience and breathe in Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel) three or four times a day.

Hyomel cures catarrh by killing the germs and it kills the germs because it gets where the germs are.

Hyomel is a powerful antiseptic and germ killing air; it is made from the fluid extracted from the eucalyptus trees of Australia where catarrh is unknown.

It gives relief instantly, stops hacking in a few days and is guaranteed by The Red Cross Pharmacy to cure catarrh, asthma, croup and bronchitis or money back. A complete outfit, including inhaler costs $1.00, and extra bottles of Hyomel cost 50 cents.

"Hyomel certainly saved my life and I record it to the credit which it deserves and merits. There is nothing too strong for me to say regarding Hyomel."—Mrs. Ada Hopkins, 8 Cutter avenue, Coldwater, Mich., August 22, 1908.

Base Ball Notes.

Larry Gardner has left Burlington for Boston, where this week he will join the Boston American league team. Gardner will probably be carried with the team as a substitute infielder and will, no doubt, be given out, as many players are being injured on the team. Gardner would like to try the outfield, but the Red Sox outfield is particularly strong this year, perhaps the strongest in the league, and such hitters as Speaker, Geesler and Hooper will be kept working.

Very quietly and with no brass band heralding the effort, McGraw is trying to pull off a couple of big deals which involve two or three of the men now with the Giants. For over a week the New York manager has been dickering with Boston for a trade for Bowerman, and if there is any way the big one-time Giant can be brought back into a Polo grounds uniform without sacrificing too much the deal will be completed. Boston is holding out for another catcher and an infielder, together with a cash bonus, but from very reliable sources it has been learned that the teams are quite likely to get together. The New York fans would welcome Bowerman back in the fold. Frank was always popular in New York, and he is an excellent batsman—far better than either Schuler or Meyers. It was with much misgiving that McGraw let him go when he did, but it was necessary at the time, for in addition to the fact that Boston insisted on a catcher, there was considerable friction between Bowerman and Bresnahan.

Old Cy Young is still there and while he may not be pitching like he did in his best days, he will still make a game for the Cleveland club this summer. It is rumored that Cy is only faking the spit ball, but at the same time we get it on good authority that the grand old pitcher sneaks a spit ball over very often. The big tosser has always been successful on the fall top grounds. Things generally break his way.

James C. Ball, catcher on the Boston National league team, has been sold along with a fielder to the Memphis, Tenn. base ball team of the Southern league, according to the Boston Journal, but the management of the Boston team has kept a string on him so that it may have him back in Montpelier in a day or so for a visit.

HELPED BROTHER OUT.

Must Go to Jail Himself—Louis Case Pleads Guilty.

Rutland, June 18.—Louis Case of Castleton pleaded guilty to charges of jail breaking before Judge F. G. Swinerton in city court yesterday afternoon and was sentenced to serve not less than 13 nor more than 18 months in the house of correction. The respondent assisted his brother who was locked up in Castleton jail for stealing chickens in getting out of the lockup. Louis Case was bound over to await the action of the grand jury by a Castleton justice about three weeks ago but in order that he might begin serving his sentence at once States Attorney J. C. Jones yesterday filed an information against him.

John A. Smith, who was arrested some weeks ago on the charge of stealing a bicycle and since been in jail, pleaded guilty yesterday to the charge against him and was sentenced to serve not less than three nor more than six months in the county jail.

Theodore Choties, a Greek, was arrested yesterday on the charge of stealing $2 from a Grove street fruit store. His case was continued two weeks. E. H. O'Brien appeared for him.

BUNKER HILL DAY.

Boston and Vicinity Celebrate Their Own Holiday.

Boston, Mass., June 18.—Boston and especially Charlestown, celebrated Bunker Hill day Wednesday night and yesterday, with the customary noise, sports, parades and other features that are annual institutions. In Boston and surrounding towns there was a general holiday. By strenuous efforts the police carried out the orders of Commissioner O'Meara for a quiet "night before" and as a result there were less noise and disorder than in recent years. There were three parades arranged for the Charlestown district, a Wild West event being the feature of the morning. For the afternoon civic parades were scheduled, and last evening there was an elaborate electrical parade.

JEFFRIES IN RING.

Former Champion Gives Exhibition in Quakertown.

Philadelphia, June 18.—A large and enthusiastic gathering of boxing enthusiasts accorded a warm welcome to Jim Jeffries when he appeared in the ring of the National A. C. last Wednesday night. The big California boxer boxed one-minute rounds with Sam Berger, his manager. Jeffries appeared to be in fairly good condition and showed fast boxing. He preceded the exhibition with a rope skipping stunt.

PRISON LABOR.

The Net Receipts for Six Months Were $264.65.

The last six months of the prison labor in Washington county appears from the figures to have been a very beneficial one so far as the finances are concerned. The net proceeds of labor of prisoners confined in the county jail at Montpelier has been $264.65. The earnings by months follow:

	Earned	Expenses	Net gain
December	$59.05	$17.95	$41.10
January	33.33	9.25	24.08
February	68.00	30.25	37.75
March	68.25	40.10	28.15
April	84.75	39.00	45.75
May	115.90	25.73	90.17

December is included because the final settlement with the judges is made at the end of the county fiscal year instead of January 1. Beside this net sum of money there are three and a half acres of potatoes planted upon Hubbard park, the expense of which was about $90 and which is paid. There is no reason now why a good crop should not be harvested which will add a good deal to the receipts in the month of September or October. These figures do not show that a penal institution can be self supporting nor does Sheriff Tracy claim one can be, but it does show that the prisoners help a good deal in paying a portion of their expenses while committed. Of course, there are those committed to jail who cannot be worked.

MISS WYNNE WEDS.

Daughter of Retiring Consul-General at London a Bride.

London, June 18.—Miss Ida M. Wynne daughter of Robert J. Wynne, until recently consul-general at London, was married at noon yesterday at the Church of Oratory, Brompton, to Lieut. Hugh Ronald French of the 7th Dragoons, stationed at Cairo.

The bride was handsomely gowned, wearing a white brocaded satin dress with a court train and a silver tissue tulle veil. The maid of honor was her sister, Miss Ruth Wynne.

After the marriage ceremony a reception was held at the hotel Savoy, which was attended by most of the American colony. Mrs. Reid, wife of the American ambassador, was among the party. The interior of the church where the ceremony was performed was decorated with flowers.

RACE WITH DUTY.

Pacific Steamship Has Big Cargo of Tea on Board.

San Francisco, June 18.—The steamship Asia is racing across the Pacific, laden with over a thousand tons of tea, seeking to land her cargo at this port before the additional tax which importers fear will be fixed on this commodity by the present Congress goes into effect.

The steamship has been scheduled to come direct, omitting the Honolulu stop, thereby saving two days. The Chayo Maru and the Manchuria have recently landed large cargoes of tea.

SEES GREAT TRADE IN CHINA.

Returned Traveler Advises Business Men to Learn the Language.

Chicago, June 18.—There are enormous opportunities for America to build up a great trade in China, in the belief of William Edgar Gell of Doylestown, Pa., who recently returned from leading an exploration tour of the great wall of China, and who Wednesday spoke before the ways and means committee of the exploration tour of the great wall of Chicago Association of Commerce.

"Conditions are changing greatly in China," said Mr. Gell, "and there are opportunities to the right and left. It is now possible to cross China with no other protection than an umbrella."

"I strongly advise every man in the United States who desires to do business on a great scale in the future to learn the Chinese language and to study the Chinese people. There are opportunities for 10,000 young men in China. There is a tremendous demand in China to-day for young Christian men."

NEW CHURCH AT WESTFORD.

Baptist Society to Replace Old Brick Edifice with Modern Structure.

Burlington, June 18.—Rev. W. A. Davison, Baptist state missionary, and deacon Willard Crane of the Burlington church, representing the Vermont Baptist convention, have returned from Westford, where they inspected the site for a new Baptist church which it is contemplated to build there. They held a conference with Rev. George H. Chambers, the pastor, and building committee.

It was decided to tear down the old brick church and to erect a new one on the site. The state convention will pay a part of the expense and the remainder will be raised by the local church and society. Plans and specifications will be completed soon and the work of construction begun this season. It will be a modern structure.

HOME SECRETARY CONSENTS TO A RUZ INVESTIGATION.

Gladstone Promises Inquiry in Reply to Question in Commons.

London, June 18.—Home Secretary Gladstone promised in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon to investigate the inquiry into the death of Mrs. Mary Agnes Ruz in this city last May, if furnished with the facts.

This promise was given in reply to a question made by Peter F. Curren, Independent-Labor member from Durham, who drew attention to the fact that the newspapers were not notified of the holding of this inquest, and declared that the coroner since had absolutely refused to give the purpose of the depositions. Mr. Curren asked if the home secretary's department was not in a position to put an end to this scandal.

"Slavonians" Reach Naples.

Naples, June 18.—The North German Lloyd steamer Princess Irene, carrying the cabin passengers of the Cunard liner Slavonia, wrecked June 10 off Flores Island, arrived here at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

When Camping Out.

The selection of tents when camping out for the summer vacation is discussed in an interesting way by a writer in Suburban Life for June, who says: "The wall of a 7x10 foot tent is two feet high. To the bottom of the wall there should be fastened a sod cloth about nine inches wide. The sod cloth is a narrow strip of the same material as the tent, sewn fast to the wall, and its use is to make a tight joint with the ground, by laying on it heavy material like guns, stones, strips of timber—anything, in fact, that will press it so close to the ground that mosquitoes, snakes and other objectionable visitors cannot gain an entrance."

BAD BREAK IN PANIC DAYS

Conditions on the New York Exchange

CHAOTIC AND DISQUIETING

Prices Drop Most Sensationally—The President's Message to Congress One of the Untoward Influences.

New York, June 18.—There was a severe break in the prices of stocks on the New York stock exchange yesterday afternoon and on the rush to sell the market took a demoralized appearance.

The declines extended to 3 1/4 in Consolidated Gas, 5 1/4 in American Sugar Refining, 3 1/4 in Amalgamated Copper, 3 1/4 in Wabash pfd., 4 1/4 in Reading and 4 1/4 in American Smelting.

There was a point between sales in some classes and the declining movement was aggravated by the uncovering of stop loss orders and the wiping out of margins. Support of influential buyers seemed to be withdrawn.

Apprehension of a revival of investigation of and agitation against the corporations and President Taft's message, suggesting federal investigation as well as a tax on the net earnings of corporations, were the factors in shaping speculative sentiment.

Another influence was the over night break of one pound sterling in the price of copper metal in London, making a decline of over 25 pounds in the metal.

Trade advices from London attributed the heaviness in copper to realizing sales for profits by speculative interests, whose operations have been conspicuous features in the London market.

The realizing of the large profits accrued to the bears on the break in prices involved an extensive charge of shorts and the buying raised prices 1 to 3 1/4 points.

The late stock market showed the effect and the check to the decline stopped the charge of additional margins, which was the prime factor in the early demoralization. Late trading became quiet but the tone was rather uncertain.

"BLACK HAND" EXPLAINED.

Two Italians Write from New York of Their Visit to Rutland.

Rutland, June 18.—The Rutland News received yesterday the following letter, presumably from the two strange Italians who called at the house of correction a few days ago and who, according to Giovanni Gioia, threatened violence to Attorney Ernest H. O'Brien if he opposed the petition which John D. Spellman had been circulating asking the governor to pardon Rev. Francesco Crociata, who is serving a sentence on the charge of assault in connection with the murder of Accarito Santoro last July. The letter is postmarked "New York," and was written in a very legible hand. It is here given verbatim:

"New York, June 18, 1908.
"Dear Sir:—
"I beg of the editor of The Evening News to make public the following:
"We were very much surprised to hear last week that we were known as representatives of Black Hand society. This is not so it is only a few weeks we came from home Italy with a message for Giovanni Gioia from his mother. When we came to Rutland Decoration day we called to give him his message.
"We ask of Father Crociata how he was getting along but never of anything as bad as doing away with any one as we read in the papers. Giovanni Gioia lies if he says anything like that but we don't believe he said it. We are glad that Mr. D. Bree has a good description of us so that we can come to Rutland and face up that was said go before Giovanni Gioia and everybody to defend our liberty and honor.
"It seems to us a terrible thing to hear any one to say such lies of any of his own country men but he has always told lies for if he didn't he would not have been always in jail. We ask of the law that if you do not believe this write to us saying our way and last time if you want us to face Giovanni Gioia anybody else. We thank the editor for being so kind as to do as we command.
"Sincerely yours
"Moraso Antonio,
"885 Mulberry St., N. Y.,
"and Pascale Rabbiale."

The statement that representatives of the Black Hand society were working in Rutland caused considerable talk when it was published in the local press some days ago.

350 WARSHIPS START FOR BRITISH BATTLE GAME.

Force Is Divided Into Three Fleets for the Manoeuvres.

London, June 18.—The mobilization of the British fleet for the annual manoeuvres is practically completed, and something like 350 warships are now making their way to their respective stations. The manoeuvres will be secret, but the general scheme is understood to be a repetition of the plan of last year, which, however, resulted in a fiasco, as owing to the fog, the opposing fleets never came into contact.

The forces this year are divided into red, white, and blue fleets. The red represents a German force assigned to a position on the east coast of Scotland. Its duty is to bring the white or North Sea fleet into action before the latter can effect a junction with the blue fleet, which is patrolling the west coast of Scotland. A condition of the manoeuvres is that the white fleet can pass only through Pentland Firth, or southward by way of Dover strait. Eighteen flag officers are engaged. Vice-Admiral Sir William Henry May is in supreme command.

Henry Clay Work Monument.

Hartford, Conn., June 18.—The monument erected in Spring Grove cemetery to the memory of Henry Clay Work, author of "Marching Through Georgia," was dedicated yesterday. United States Senator Bulkeley made the chief address.

SUGAR FRAUDS.

Delay Asked Because of "Infamed Public Opinion."

New York, June 18.—A temporary postponement to Tuesday was taken yesterday by order of Judge Holt in the United States circuit court of the trial of Oliver Spitzer and the six checkers employed by the American Sugar Refining company on the Williamsburg docks of the Havemeyers & Elbers refinery. Former State Senator Lexow appeared as counsel for Spitzer, and Henry Cochrane for the checkers. Both lawyers vigorously urged a postponement of the trial of the men until the October term of court. Spitzer and the checkers were indicted by the federal grand jury on the charge of conspiring to defraud the government following the exposure of the false weighing scandal involving the sugar trust.

Mr. Lexow moved the court to put the case over to the October term, saying that the infamed state of public opinion in all things concerning the sugar trust, as well as the warm criticism of the press, made a fair trial for the accused men impossible. Mr. Cochrane strongly supported Mr. Lexow in this argument.

"We have been ready for trial and sought nine different times to begin, but the government stated it was not ready. Now with everybody sore against the sugar people the government cries, 'Ready.'"

Former United States Attorney Stinson, who is appearing for the government in the sugar fraud cases, opposed the motion for postponement, saying that the federal jury were of the high class to be influenced by any public clamor.

Mr. Lexow said that he understood there were twenty more indictments pending against Spitzer, but Mr. Stinson denied this.

Judge Holt said he would take the matter under advisement and in the meantime would order a temporary postponement until Tuesday.

SENT TO WORKHOUSE.

Well-to-do Young Man Has No Other Alternative.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 18.—Ralph Shull, a well to do young lumberman and secretary of the J. W. Shull Lumber company of this city, has been sentenced to the workhouse for five days, without the option of a fine, for exceeding the speed limit in his automobile.

"A man who owns an automobile," said the judge, "can easily pay a fine; therefore a straight workhouse sentence is the only remedy to stop this excessive speeding by automobilists."

"Judge Smith is right," said Mr. Shull yesterday. "I am guilty and I will serve my time in the workhouse without any bitter feeling toward the court."

Not for Bryan.

Chicago, June 18.—W. J. Bryan said flatly yesterday morning that he was not a candidate for United States senator from Nebraska and that there must be a mistake somewhere with regard to the alleged boom for him. He also said that he would reserve comment upon the talk about the "La Follette-Bryan" party until he had heard from somebody who wanted to join the party.
